

IPEd accreditation lasts for five years, after which you must apply for renewal of accreditation if you wish to retain your status as an accredited editor. This form is intended for editors who became accredited in 2012.

Instructions

Completing the form

1. Before you start, please read the Guidelines for renewal of accreditation 2017.
2. Complete the form using either of the following the methods:
 - onscreen, by typing directly into the fields – make sure you save your completed form to your computer
 - printing the form and filling it in by hand – you may wish to scan your completed form for emailing (see step 7 below).
3. You must complete all fields in Applicant Details.
4. You must complete Section A (all questions marked *) and at least 3 questions in Section B.
5. Only complete Section C if your situation falls outside the scope of Sections A and B.
6. Fill in the Declaration on the last page.

Submitting your application

7. Submit your completed form, along with the application fee (see last page for details) before the closing date. Applications may be submitted by :
 - emailing the saved or scanned file to: admin@iped-editors.org, or
 - posting the handwritten form to: T Winchester, IPEd, PO Box 8, Coopers Plains QLD 4108.

Closing date

- Applications may be submitted at any time from 1 July 2017 but no later than 31 October 2017.
- Applications must be received by the IPEd secretary by 31 October 2017. If you are posting your application, make sure you leave enough time for it to be delivered by the closing date.
- Late applications will only be accepted in exceptional circumstances and where prior approval has been granted. If you need an extension, please outline your reasons in an email to ab.chair@iped-editors.org at least TWO weeks before the closing date.

Section A: Continuing involvement in the editing profession

This section has 18 questions. Complete all questions marked *, and others as they apply to you.

1* Do you currently work in any capacity as an editor?

If YES go to Q2 (below)
If NO, go to Q16 (on page 4)

Q2 relates to your current work as an editor. Only answer this question if you answered YES to Q1.

2 Is your editing work undertaken as part of your primary employment or as your primary source of income?

If YES go to Q3 (below)
If NO, go to Q10 (on page 3)

Examples:

Sally works part-time as a receptionist but does occasional freelance work as an editor. Susie would answer 'No' to Q2 and go straight to Q10.

Rashid is a contract editor employed by an editing business, but also works casual hours at a cafe on weekends to supplement his income. Rashid would answer 'Yes' to Q2 and go to Q3.

Clare is managing editor at a publishing house but also does freelance editing in her spare time. Clare would answer 'Yes' to Q2 and go to Q3.

Greta is a pensioner who has recently retired but does editing on a voluntary basis for her local community groups. Greta would answer 'No' to Q2 and go straight to Q10.

Editing as primary employment or primary income

Q3–9 relate to your primary occupation as an editor. Only answer these questions if you answered YES to Q2.

3 What is the employment category of your primary editorial work? (tick one only)

Only select "Self-employed" if you are a sole trader with an ABN, a partner in a partnership, or the owner of a business. If you work on a contract basis for one or more employers, select "Employee". If you are unsure if you are an employee or an independent contractor, see the definitions on the ATO website or the Fair Work Ombudsman's website.

Employee Name of employer:

Self-employed Name of business or trading name:

Other Please specify:

Examples:

Rashid works on assignment from an editing business, which finds the clients and also sets the pay rate for each job. Rashid would tick 'Employee' and provide the name of the editing business which contracts his work.

Clare is an in-house editor at a publisher so she would tick 'Employee' and provide the name of the publisher.

Jenny is a freelance editor with her own ABN who chooses which jobs she will take and sets her own rates for each job. Jenny would tick 'Self-employed' and provide her own name or her trading name if it is different.

Hamish is on an unpaid internship with a small publisher. Hamish would select 'Other' and specify 'Intern with [publisher]'.
