

Societies of editors in WA and Tasmania support IPEd direct membership

May 2016

The societies of editors in WA, Tasmania and Canberra have held second votes on resolutions to approve the IPEd Transition Plan and become branches of IPEd.

- The Society of Editors (WA) held a vote which closed on 16 May and the resolution was passed with 40 in favour and six against
- The Society of Editors (Tasmania) held a special general meeting on 23 March and the resolution was passed with 13 in favour and one against
- CSE held a special general meeting on 30 March with full members voting in person or by proxy. The resolution was not passed with 20 in favour and 22 against